

Your journey to Tyax Lodge & Heliskiing is part of the adventure. Located near Gold Bridge, BC the resort is readily accessible by ground or air, yet remote enough to ensure a truly genuine wilderness experience. Visit www.tyax.com for driving routes and fly-in options.

Recommended: By Ground From Vancouver / Whistler Via Lillooet

(350 km, 6 hrs 20 min / 230 km, 4 hrs 45 min)

1. Drive North on Highway 99 towards Whistler.
2. Drive past Whistler to Pemberton.
3. Continue on Highway 99 (Duffy Lake Road) to Lillooet.
4. Drive into Lillooet turning right on Main Street and left at Moha Road (just past Subway).
5. Follow Highway 40 (Carpenter Lake Road*) towards Gold Bridge until you see the sign for Tyax.
6. Go right (do not go to Gold Bridge) and follow Tyaughton Lake Road for 8 kilometers into Tyax Lodge & Heliskiing.

WARNING: The Carpenter Lake Road is a maintained Provincial Highway but there are unpaved and narrow sections; please be cautious of sharp corners and rocks on the road. Drive with caution & care. To check on the status of Hwy 40 check drivebc.ca.

By Ground From Vancouver / Whistler Via Pemberton Meadows Rd and Hurley River Forest Service Road (4x4 vehicle only – not recommended by Tyax Lodge & Heliskiing)

(250 km, 4 hrs 50 min / 130 km, 3 hrs 15 min):

1. Drive North on Highway 99 towards Whistler.
2. Drive past Whistler to Pemberton.
3. Turn left into Pemberton and continue on Portage Road to Pemberton Meadows Road.
4. Turn left to stay on Pemberton Meadows Road
5. Follow Pemberton Meadows Road for 21 km.
6. Turn right on Lillooet Forest Service Road and continue 8.6 km.
7. Turn right on to Hurley River Forest Service Road for 45.3 km.
8. Continue onto Gun Lake Road S. and onto Carpenter Lake Road for 11.5 km.
9. Turn left onto Tyaughton Lake Road for 8 kilometers into Tyax Lodge & Heliskiing.

WARNING: The Hurley River Forest Service Road is a Wilderness Forest Service road that is only accessible during the summer months. Travel is only recommended with a 4WD

Recommended: By Ground From Kamloops Via Lillooet

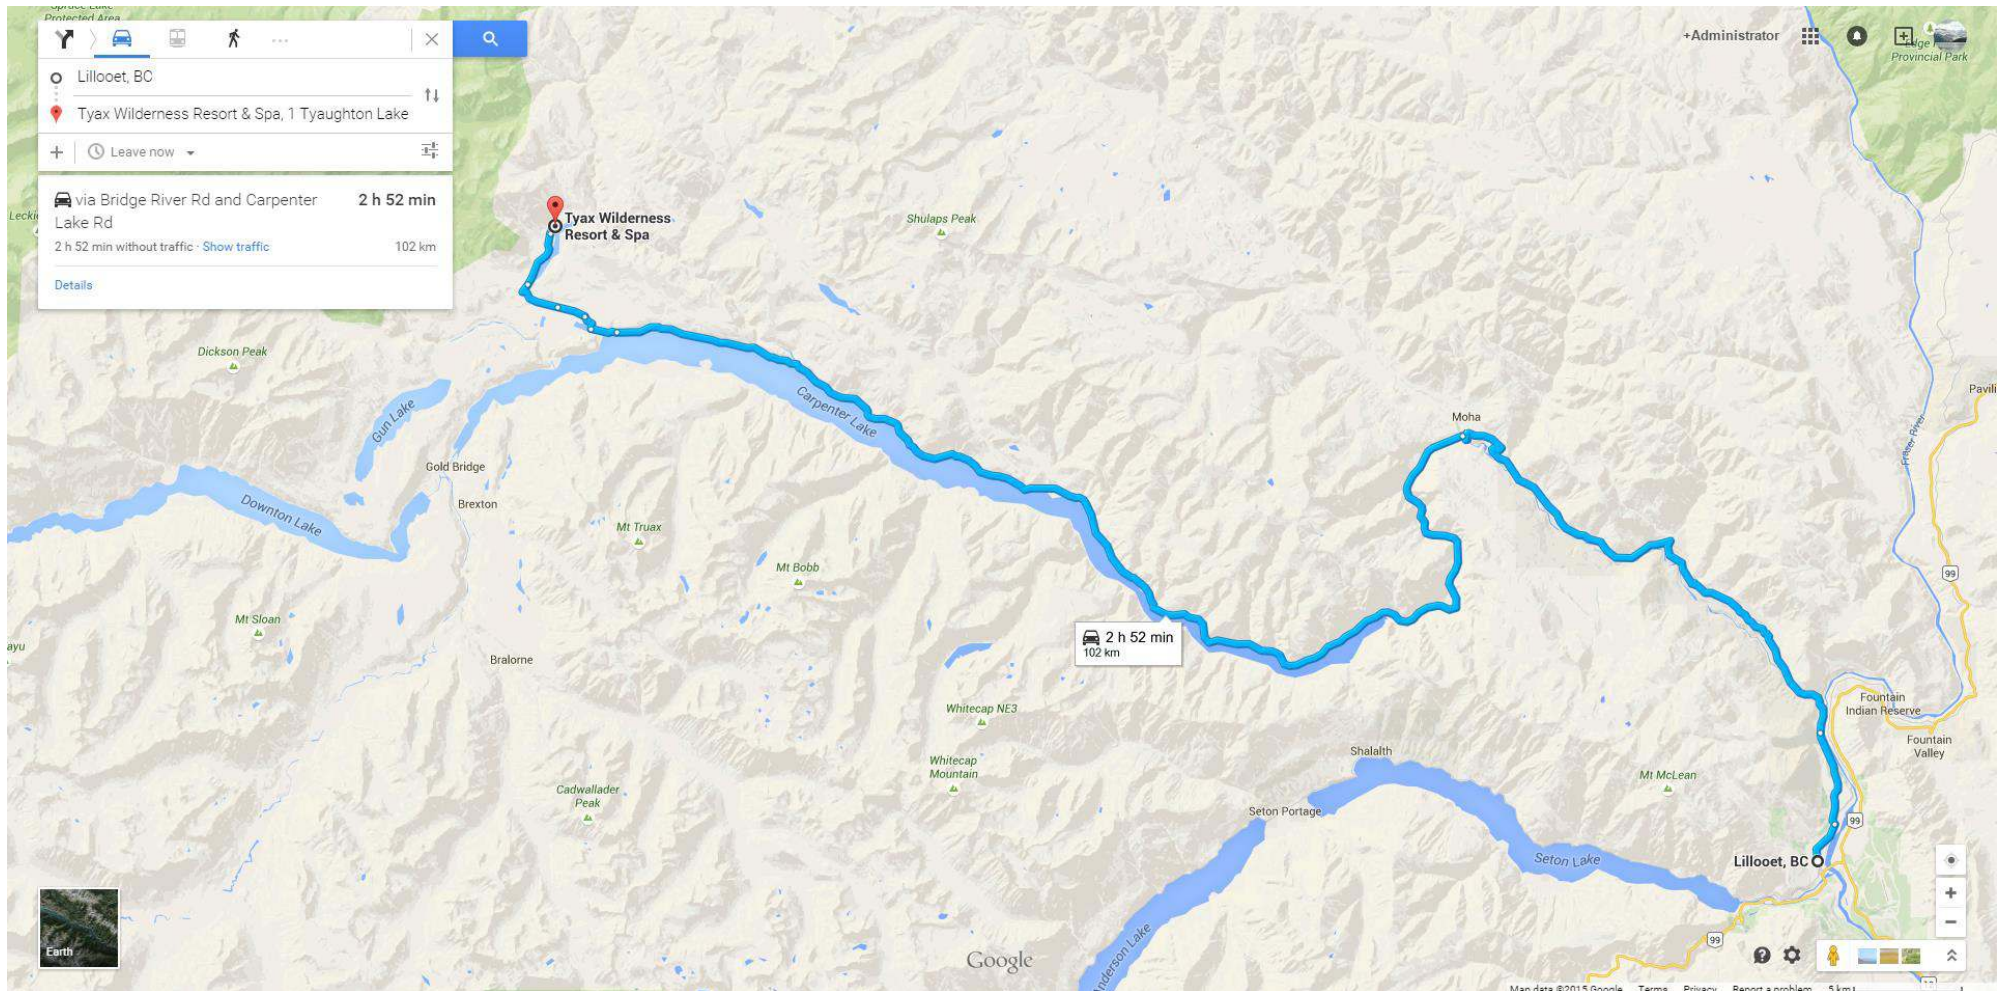

(275 km, 5 hours)

1. Take the Trans Canada Highway West (#1) towards Cache Creek.
2. In Cache Creek, take a sharp right onto Cariboo Hwy (Hwy 97N) towards Lillooet.
3. Turn left onto Duffey Lake Road (Hwy 99S).
4. Turn right to stay on Duffey Lake Road.
5. Turn right onto Seton Lake Road towards Lillooet.
6. Drive into Lillooet turning right on Main Street and left at Moha Road (just past Subway).
7. Follow Highway 40 (Carpenter Lake Road) towards Gold Bridge until you see the sign for Tyax.
8. Go right (do not go to Gold Bridge) and follow Tyaughton Lake Road for 8 kilometers into Tyax Lodge & Heliskiing.

WARNING: The Carpenter Lake Road is a maintained Highway and School bus route but you must be cautious of sharp corners and rocks on the road. Drive with caution & care. To check on the status of Hwy (Road) 40 check drivebc.ca.

Your journey to Tyax Lodge & Heliskiing is part of the adventure. Located near Gold Bridge, BC the resort is readily accessible by ground or air, yet remote enough to ensure a truly genuine wilderness experience. Visit www.tyax.com for driving routes and fly-in options.

Tyax Lodge & Heliskiing strongly recommends driving Carpenter Lake Road shown above.